

Microsoft Education

Spend less time setting up devices

The right technology should do more than fit within your budget—it should also have a tangible benefit for IT administrators. Check out the Transform Classroom Time infographic to discover how Microsoft Education positively affects your IT staff, plus your teachers and students.

Learn how schools that are already using Microsoft 365 Education save:

- As much as 84 percent of IT administrators' time—by simplifying device setup and management.
- USD125 thousand per year by getting rid of web-conferencing and learning-management solutions.
- USD250 thousand per year by decreasing storage and computing power-related needs.
- USD4 million per year by choosing a cloud solution instead of an on-premises upgrade.
