

Microsoft Education

Get started with Microsoft Education

Get guidance on implementing Microsoft Education solutions, no matter what you need—whether it's the perfect mix of devices for your students or a new science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) program.

To begin, simply:

- Start a conversation. Follow the Connect with Microsoft link below, fill out a form, and tell us a little about what you're thinking.
- Talk to our team. They'll call you within a few days, learn more details about your needs, and find you a Certified Microsoft Partner.
- Your partner will connect with you. They can help with everything from implementation to setting up devices.
